28 May 2024 – Pasig City: In a significant move towards embracing the government's initiative for a unified national identification system, Chairman Monalisa Dimalanta of the Energy Regulatory Commission (ERC) enthusiastically registered with the Philippine Identification System (PhilSys). The registration took place at her office in Ortigas Center, facilitated by the dedicated team from the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA).

Chairman Dimalanta's proactive step underscores her commitment to compliance with governmental directives and sets a commendable example for her colleagues and the wider community. Demonstrating exemplary leadership, Chairman Dimalanta extended an open invitation to her staff members yet to register with PhilSys. She encouraged them to avail themselves of this opportunity, emphasizing the ease and convenience of having the registration team at their doorstep.

She is committed to supporting national initiatives that promote efficiency and inclusivity. She believes that registering with PhilSys will contribute to the collective effort of building a more streamlined and accessible government service for all Filipinos.
