Makati, Philippines - July 5, 2024 — Father Tito Caluag, a prominent figure in the Archdiocese of Novaliches and the Executive Director of Caritas Philippines, has officially registered for the National ID. This significant event occurred at the Philippine Transmarine Carriers Inc. after he celebrated the First Friday Mass with the company's employees.

Father Caluag, known for his unwavering dedication to the community and his spiritual leadership, took this step to inspire others to participate in the National ID registration. By registering himself, he aims to highlight the importance of having a National ID and its benefits in streamlining various processes for Filipinos nationwide.

"It is our responsibility to lead by example," said Father Caluag. "Registering for the National ID is a step towards unity and progress for our nation. I encourage everyone to take part in this initiative."

The National ID system is a crucial project of the government aimed at simplifying public and private transactions, reducing corruption, and improving the delivery of social services. Father Caluag's participation underscores the significance of this initiative and encourages more Filipinos to follow suit.

Under Father Caluag's leadership, Caritas Philippines continues to be a beacon of hope and support for the underprivileged. His participation in the National ID registration is a testament to his commitment to national progress and community development.
