Makati City - November 8, 2024 – The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) successfully delivered the Philippine National ID to two prominent figures, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the Philippines, Jose Midas Marquez, and Josef Carlo Sta. Clara Marcelo, Country General Manager of GE Healthcare. The delivery occurred on November 8, 2024, at Barangay Forbes, Forbes Park, where Justice Marquez and Mr. Marcelo received their IDs directly from PSA representatives.

RTS Personnel Neldie A. Sotto and Statistical Specialist II Marnelli A. Lansangan met with Justice Jose Midas Marquez and Mr. Josef Carlo Sta. Clara Marcelo on November 8, 2024, at Barangay Forbes, Forbes Park, to personally hand over their Philippine National IDs. Both recipients expressed their appreciation to PSA-PhilSys for the seamless and secure service, commending the convenience of having their IDs delivered directly to them. Justice Marquez and Mr. Marcelo shared their excitement and happiness at finally having their National IDs in hand, acknowledging the card's value in simplifying legal, financial, and daily transactions. They also expressed gratitude for the PSA's ongoing efforts to make the National ID accessible to all Filipinos, recognizing its importance in providing a unified, reliable proof of identity.

The Philippine National ID, issued through the Philippine Identification System (PhilSys), is part of the government's mission to provide Filipinos with unified, reliable proof of identity, enhancing public service delivery and accessibility. The PSA-PhilSys team continues to improve ID delivery nationwide, ensuring that registered citizens can experience the full benefits of this essential identification.
